

MISSION 500 HUMANITARIAN AWARD

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: MARCH 8, 2019

Background

Mission 500 also presents an annual “Humanitarian Award”, designed to honor individuals in the security industry who make important contributions to those in need. Anyone within the Security Industry can be nominated and a judging panel will evaluate all applicants based on the award criteria, and their respective contributions toward social causes.

The Award Ceremony will take place during the Security 5/2K Reception at the ISC West in Las Vegas on April 11, 2019. In addition to Security 5/2K participants, many senior executives and professionals from the industry and media will be present. During the same event, Mission 500 will also present its “Corporate Responsibility Award”, designed to honor individuals in the security industry who make important contributions to those in need.

The winner will have their name featured in a presentation at the cocktail reception and will be invited to receive an award on stage.

Entry Criteria

A brief summary on why you believe your candidate of choice should receive the Mission 500 Humanitarian Award must be submitted to Kathryn Robinson at krobinson@mission500.org prior to March 8th. Please submit all supporting material in Word, JPEG, or PDF format.

Judging Process

The judging panel is comprised of Mission 500 Advisory Board Members. Each judge will be asked to submit an electronic vote to the designated teller. The award winner will then be notified in the following 72 hours.

Information provided within this application form or on additional documents will be disclosed to the judges on a strictly confidential basis and used exclusively for the purpose of judging the Mission 500 Humanitarian Award.
